Presenting The NEW

MILLSAPS TODAY IS NEW WITH EXCITEMENT, OUR SOUTH IS NEW, THE WORLD ABOUT US IS NEW. PERHAPS WE DID NOT START THE TREND, BUT MILLSAPS IS A PART OF IT. WE WILL ASSUME OUR ROLE IN THIS EVERCHANGING PICTURE.

NEWNESS IS SOMETIMES GLITTERING, SOMETIMES A GIGANTIC FEARFULNESS.

FEARFULNESS IN THIS TIME WILL BE DEATH. ONLY CLEAR VISION AND INTELLIGENT INSIGHT CAN SEE INTO THE FUTURE MORE THAN THE IMMEDIATE CHANGES. CHANGED CURRICULUM AND A DECREASING PERCENTAGE OF MALE STUDENTS ARE ONLY MINOR DIFFERENCES. EXTRA HOURS OF WORK AND NEW JOBS WILL BE BUT THE BEGINNING OF THIS NEW ERA.

THE NEW WORLD MUST BE A COMPLETE WORLD. THERE CAN BE NO BLACKED-OUT PEOPLES OR RESTRICTED AREAS. FREEDOM MUST BE THE PROPERTY OF ALL MEN, FOR WE MUST SHARE IT TO EXERCISE IT. THIS IS WHAT MILLSAPS BELIEVES.

WE CAN NOT PREDICT THE OUTCOME. HERE WE ONLY ATTEMPT TO PORTRAY SOME OF THE TRENDS OF THE SURGING CHANGES ABOUT US. MILLSAPS, YOU ARE YOUNG. TO YOU BELONG VISION AND FORESIGHT. WE COMMEND YOU TO THE AGES.

AND HERE WE PRESENT THE NEW MILLSAPS . . . LITTLE HANDS ON BIG TASKS.

M I L L S A P S . . .

Can this be Millsaps? Yes, perhaps it is now, but with such a picture there can be no doubt the boys will come marching back.

SOMEHOW IN THE HURRY OF IT ALL, WE GET TO CLASS OCCASIONALLY. THE KNOWLEDGE THEREUPON EXTENDED TO US BOTHERS US INTO A HAZE. WE DON'T QUITE GRASP ITS MEANING. WE SEEK SOMETHING BEYOND THE MERE ACADEMIC. IT'S NICE TO FIND A FRIEND WHO KNOWS HOW YOUTH LIVES.

BY THE VITALITY OF HIS ACTIONS WE ARE AWARE THAT YALE HAS SENT US A TEACHER FOR YOUTH. PROGRESSIVE THOUGHT AND LIBERALISM ARE QUALITIES SYNONYMOUS WITH HIS NAME. THIS MAN FROM FLORIDA HAS AWAKENED OUR SLUMBERING MINDS WITH REALITIES OF THE WORLD WE LIVE IN.

MORE THAN THIS, HE HAS LED US IN THINKING ABOUT THE WORLD WE WILL LIVE IN; THE WORLD THAT IS EVOLVING FROM PRESENT DAY EVENTS AND THE ONE WHICH WE WILL HELP TO BUILD. GOING EVEN FURTHER, HE HAS GIVEN US THE HOPE, AND SO INSTRUCTED US, THAT THIS WORLD MIGHT BE FASHIONED AFTER THE DESIRES AND NEEDS OF MAN. WE CAN ASK FOR NO GREATER HELP THAN THE REALIZATION THAT MAN WILL YET KNOW MAN. WE DARE TO HOPE FOR A NEW WORLD AND A NEW MILLSAPS. WE ARE THANKFUL FOR WHAT HAS BEEN GIVEN US, AND WE WISH TO DEDICATE THIS VOLUME—THE NEW MILLSAPS—OF THE BOBASHELA TO HENRY MORTON BULLOCK.

DEDICATED

This year Millsaps College begins the second fifty years of its educational service to the youth of Mississippi. Its endowment, national rating, and tradition assure it of continued and increasing usefulness. But as important as the endowment and rating are, probably the greatest single factor in the life of the college is that "Spirit of Millsaps" which is so intangible and yet so surely known by those students and people who get into its life.

Let me congratulate every person whose opportunity it is to live in this college community and whose fortune it is to discover the spirit of Millsaps.

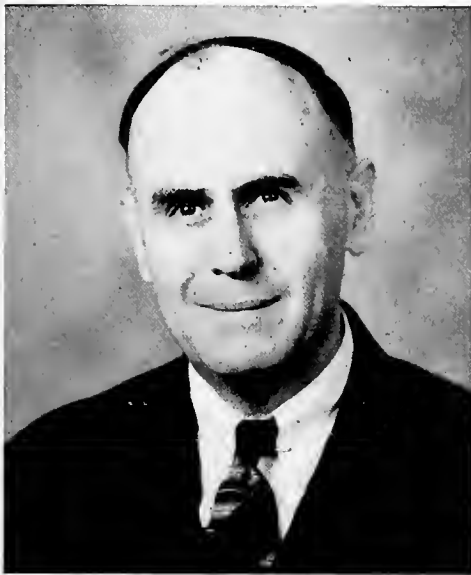

M. L. SMITH, President.

Our DEANS . . .

DR. W. E. RIECKEN
Dean of Men

"Dean Bill" Riecken is a good guy. He is a many-faceted personality: a member of AED, honorary pre-med fraternity; a teacher of biology; and Dean of Men.

He is admirably fitted for the Dean's desk, possessing an agreeable, friendly personality in addition to a will very definitely his own. He is a clear, concise speaker. What he says, you get—whether it be a fact of biology or a matter of student attendance.

You're OK, "Dean Bill."

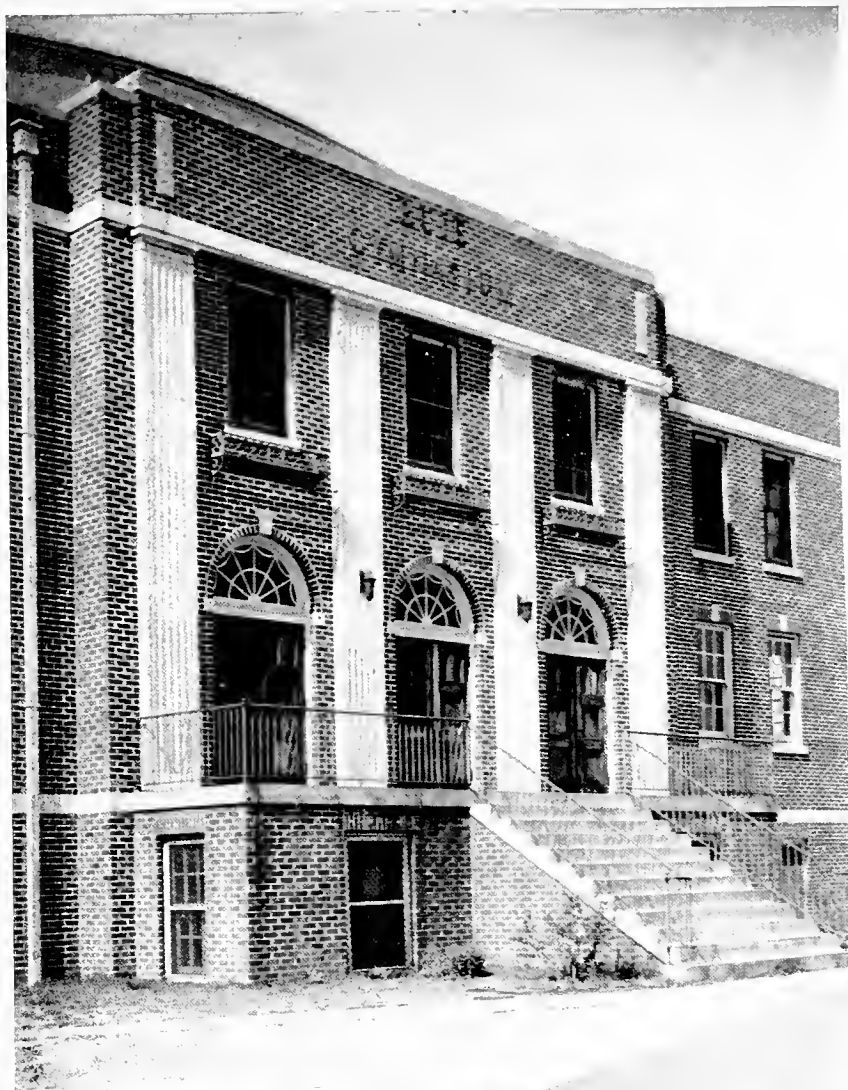

MRS. MARY B. STONE
Dean of Women

Mrs. Mary B. Stone, Dean of Women, is a very versatile person. Beside her duties as Dean, she is a member of Chi Delta, honorary literary sorority, as well as of Sigma Lambda, honorary leadership sorority. She is advisor to the Women's Council and is an excellent English teacher.

"I am a rather extraverted person," she admits laughingly.

She is also extremely capable and intelligent. She is as well-liked as she is likable. Hats off and a hand-shake to you, Mrs. Stone, for handling so many duties so well.

MASTER MAJOR and . . .

MISS MILLSAPS

The handsome masculine face looking out of this page belongs to Fred Tatum, Master Major, who has left us for medical school. Some will remember this some face grinning out of the PURPLE AND WHITE sporting page above its owner's crisp reports of Millsaps athletic affairs. Fred comes from a very famous Millsaps family indeed. His grandfather's portrait hangs on the walls of the chapel, and Tatum Classroom is dedicated to that some old gentleman, whose name on a bronze plate decorates the door through which grandson Fred has passed many a time. Fred has upheld a worthy tradition well.

Mary Emma (Five by Five) Ervin, Miss Millsaps, is one of those people who must find plenty to do or explode with repressed energy. We are glad to state that she is very far from exploding at the present moment. She did her bit in winning the war this year with her splendid work in the War Bond Drive, during which greenbacks and small change flowed through her fingers like quicksilver. Also on her list of accomplishments is her organization of the famous "Five by Five" Club, limited to those with appropriate waistlines.

The SENIOR

OFFICERS . .

They look blandly down on the passing mess.

Buddy Carr, this year's Senior Class President, can look back upon a long and successful athletic career. He can also look back upon a long list of friends, both eds and co-eds . . . especially the latter! His collection of co-eds is famed as one of the wonders of Millsaps. A member of the Marine Corps Reserve, Buddy is already amply qualified to take the situation well in hand when he lands.

As editor of the PURPLE AND WHITE, Harold Turnage is already quite a well-known person. Now, besides the journalistic quill, he has added to his cap a political feather . . . that of Senior Vice-President. He is a member of three honoraries: Kit Kat, Eta Sigma Phi, and ODK. He's a Lambda Chi Alpha brother and is featured in the 1943 WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES. Harold is definitely a "Who's Who" at Millsaps.

Fanny Wroten, Senior Class Secretary and Treasurer, is a Jill of all trades, belonging to Alpha Psi Omega, Kappa Delta Epsilon, Eta Sigma Phi honoraries, and Phi Mu social sorority. She's pledge mother of the latter. Fanny is also a scion of a traditional Millsaps family, for not only did her mother and father meet on the campus, but she also has had a brother to graduate from the college and has another now in its Sophomore Class.

The JUNIOR

This is Buddy Wafford's third year at Millsaps. It is also his third year as President of his class—an honor he first started winning in his freshman year. If Uncle Sam had not interfered, it would have been a fairly safe bet that Buddy would have consistently won the Senior presidency in his fourth year, thus perfectly rounding out a career as B.M.O.C. which is already something to be proud of. Politically, scholastically, and personally speaking, Buddy is tops.

OFFICERS . .

They look blondly about, so glad that troubles don't bother them

Jitterbugs already know Dan Wright as the proprietor of a band which was going places in those dear dead days beyond recall. Dan, an accomplished musician, is Junior Vice-President as well. Like most of our 1-A, A-1 boys, Dan is now in the army.

One look at Emma Gene Gainey's dark beauty will tell you why the heart of James Stuckenschneider is all aflutter these days. Emma Gene in the flesh would make your own heart flutter—if you are of the masculine gender. Emma Gene is Secretary of her class, and we predict a brilliant success for her in whatever she undertakes that requires beauty, brains, and charm. She shone recently as an actress in one of Dr. White's plays, "Suppressed Desires."

The SOPHOMORE

"Hi, Frye, what's fryin'?" . . . When they say this, you know they're talking to Harry Frye, President of the Sophomore Class. Harry's an all-round good guy—a hot tennis player as well as a capable politician and an able student. Since Harry belongs to the Army Reserves, by the time you read this he'll probably be learning his P's and Q's at a military school rather than at Millsaps. He's a great guy, Frye, and let's hope that he never jumps out of the Frying Pan into the fire.

Billy Shackelford, in his sophomore year, is already a Little Big Shot, having copped the Vice-Presidency of his class as well as distinguishing himself in various other ways. Not the least of these is his engaging personality and the intellectual expression he always wears. There is plenty behind that expression, too—or we wouldn't be writing about him on this page.

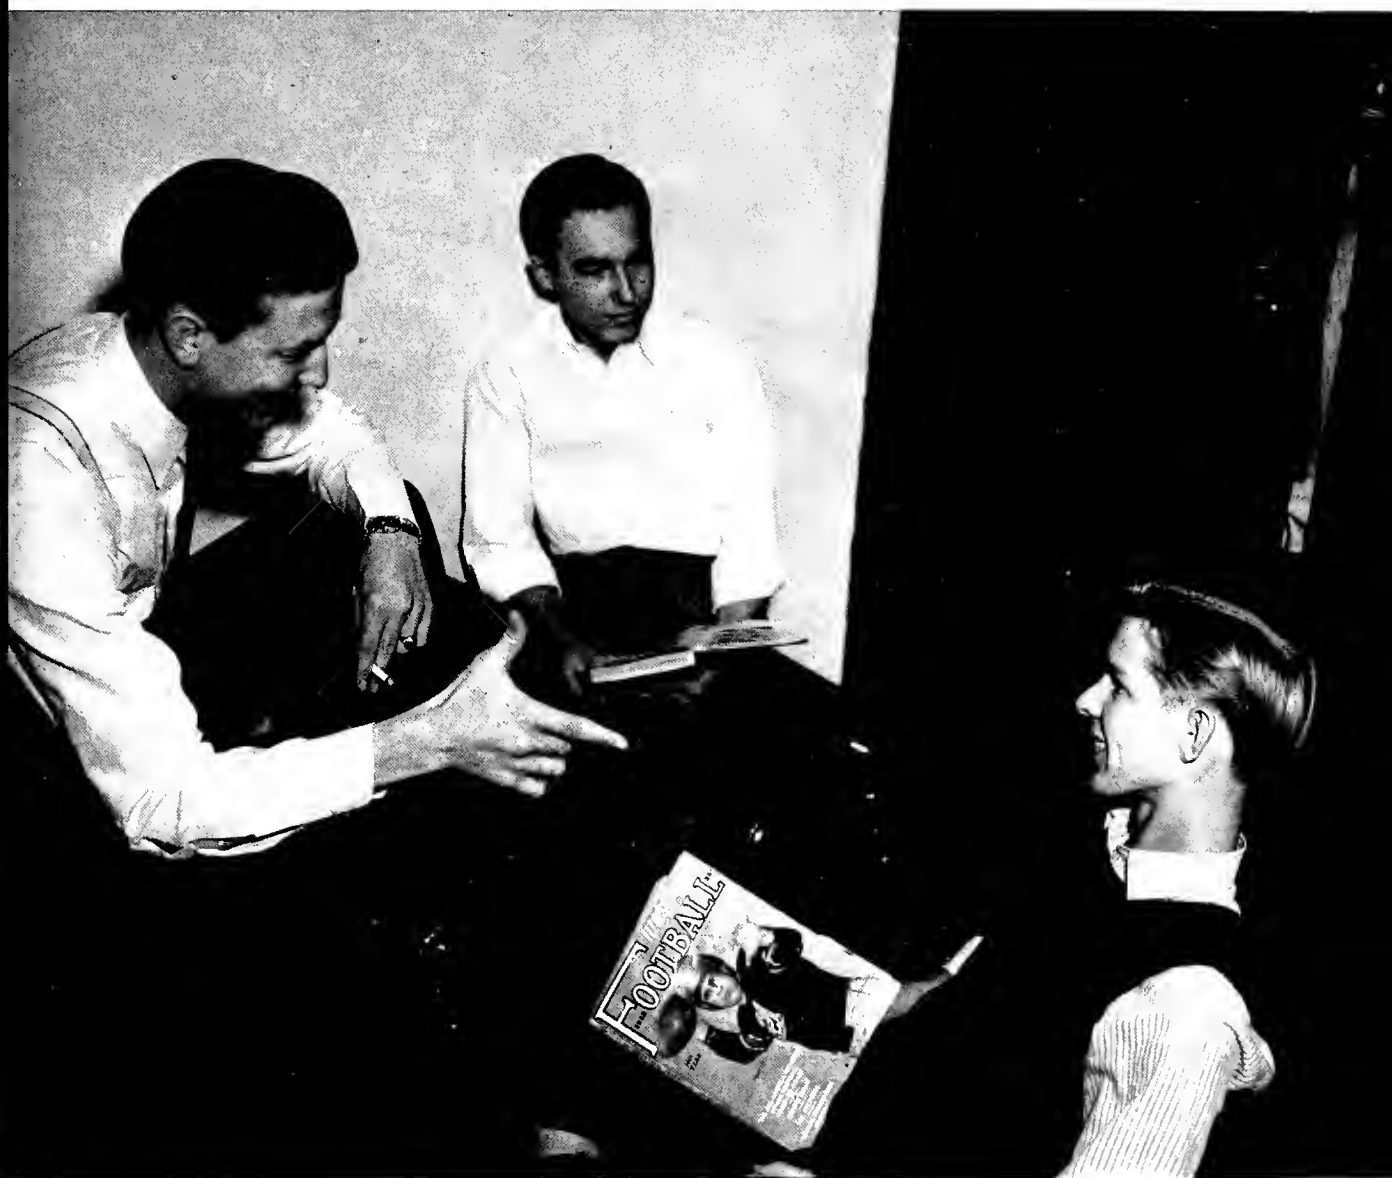

OFFICERS . .

They are ready to fire away on anything

French students would call Carolyn Myers "chic", or maybe "petite." We who know no French call her a swell girl who, in spite of being Secretary-Treasurer of her class, hasn't even the beginnings of a swelled head. Carolyn, after all this well-earned triumph, is on her way to a deserved success as a member of that exclusive, non-existent society—B.W.O.C.

TO EVERYBODY EVERYWHERE

The F R E S H M

Truly Conerly, that fellow with the grin and the appropriate given name, has started out his freshman year in good style—as rush chairman of his fraternity and president of his class, which shows that that pleasing personality of his is getting him places! Take a look at that face of his in the accompanying picture and see if you don't agree with us. A pleasing personality, an agreeable grin, and an unusual name—could a B.M.O.C. possess better assets?

Perhaps its the masculine charm shared by the men of his family, but the fact remains that Bill Dabbs, Freshman Vice-President, is already a name to reckon with on the campus. This famous name was recently shouted by James Webb over the public address system in connection with the war bond drive. Even the PURPLE AND WHITE termed Bill Dabbs on "intelligent freshman", and printed his opinion on the probable duration of the war. It can clearly be seen by this that Bill has the international, as well as the local, outlook. Watch his smoke, folks!

Lustrous-eyed Dale Burnham, that rose between two thorns in the photograph, is featured on this page as Secretary-Treasurer of her class, and elsewhere in this book as a Millsaps beauty. Dale hails from Magee, Mississippi, and we could hardly imagine a more charming representative of her home town, nor anyone friendlier and more agreeable.

ATHLETICS

BASKETBALL at MILLSAPS

The Millsaps Majors, under the direction of Coach Dave Carson, have just completed a successful season. The success was due largely to the fact that they beat the Choc-taws three games to one. The Majors were defeated in the first game by one point, and then they took the other three in a row.

These games were played while in the Army-Collegiate League, composed of Mississippi College, the Mississippi Ordnance Plant, Jackson Air Base, and the Mississippi Guards. Millsaps was the leading team until they dropped out after the Christmas holidays.

The Majors also played a four-game series with Loyola, losing all four to the fast, tall boys from New Orleans.

With the exception of Captain Buddy Carr and Lightning Lowther, the Millsaps basketball team was composed of inexperienced men. Carr and Lowther returned from last year's team to lead the offensive play.

Guard positions were played by Joe Stubblefield and Jack Glaze. Both saw action last year, Glaze as a freshman.

Paired at forward with Lowther was Mike McLaurin, who also saw action last year as a freshman. Carr at center rounded out the team.

Gale Fant and John Durfey, freshmen, rendered valuable aid at forward. Big John Greer, transfer from S.L.I., played great ball at guard.

I N T R A M U

Pike Speedball Team

Sig Softball Team

Pike Volleyball Team

Under the careful guidance of the intramural council, Millsaps had the most colorful and exciting intramural program in its history

Speedball got under way with a bang. The Pikes took an early lead by disposing of the Sigs, Lambda Chis, and Non Frats. The KA's, at the same time, had won their first three games. The championship game was a thriller, with the two teams evenly matched. The Pikes scored early in the first quarter by virtue of a blocked kick, and held this 7-0 lead until the last few seconds when the KA's pushed over a touchdown. The extra point failed, giving the Pikes a 7-6 victory.

The Kappa Sigs went through the softball race without any trouble, winning all games by a comfortable margin. The Sigs beat the Pikes, Lambda Chis, Non Frats, and KA's behind the steady pitching of Joe Stubblefield and the consistent hitting of Dick Catledge and Dave Grayden.

The Pikes won the volleyball without any trouble by taking the measure of the KA's, Sigs, and Non Frats. The outstanding playing of Allen, Webb, and McLaurin put the Pikes in a position to go through the schedule losing but one game.

R A L S for M E N . . .

Ping pong was next on the list. Ninety students participated in this intramural, with each fraternity entering as many men as they desired. After two weeks of continuous playing the count was taken, and the result was that the Sigs and Pikes had tied at twenty wins each. Both fraternities were given winner's points but a play-off was held for the cup, with the five best members from both fraternities playing it off. The Sigs won by a 3-2 count. The individual winner was Parker Walker (KS) with Clifton Schrader (LXA) as runner-up.

For the second time the Sigs and Pikes couldn't decide who would take the cup without a play-off. In a double elimination basketball tournament, the Pikes and Sigs sailed through without trouble until they played each other. The play-off game was easily taken by the Sigs by a score of 32-20, with Fred Tatum leading the attack with eleven points. Also sharing honors were Curtis Magee and Charles Dent.

The free throw tournament is being held, with the outcome having a definite bearing on the big cup. At present the Pikes have a slim margin over the Sigs for first place.

Intramural sports here at Millsops for the girls consists of round-robin tournaments held in basketball, softball, golf, table tennis, volleyball, tennis, and archery. In addition to these tournaments, a field day is held in the spring.

In the individual events medals are awarded to the winner or outstanding player and to the runner-up, while a cup is awarded to the winning team.

This year the ping pong intramurals were played by experienced veterans of the game. All the teams really went to town when it came to swatting that little ball. Some fine competition developed among the players, but Ann Brien led the Phi Mu's to an overwhelming victory. The other teams that participated were the Beta Sigs, KD's, Chi O's, and the Non Sorority team.

The 1943 intramural basketball cup will go to the Non Sorority girls. Led by Brown, Horris, and Adene Hurst as forwards and Stroud, Reeves, and Aylene Hurst as guards, the Non Sorority girls finished the season with five wins and no losses. The winners were followed in a close second by a strong Kappa Delta team.

The Beta Sigs finished third, capably led by Hettie Faye Beasley. The Beta Sig team scored an upset the last night of the season, handing the Chi O's a sound trouncing. The Phi Mu's came out as the losers.

W O M E N . . .

Gym queen, Hettie Faye Beasley, led the Beta Sigs to intramural softball championship. Beginning by defeating the runners-up, the KD's, the BSO's swept through their following four games without a loss. The KD's and Chi O's had strong teams but they finally yielded to the champs. Peggy Stroud, on first base, and Cecil Haeuser, with her heavy hitting, were a great asset to the team.

The KD's came in second, losing only one game. Sara Dewees' hitting and Alice Owens' pitching were the featured strength on the KD's. The bright spots in fielding were Jo Wells and Dell Walling.

The Chi Omegas came in third, losing only two games. Following in fourth place were the Non Sorority Girls, with the Phi Mu's coming in last.

Coach Dave M. Carson

GYM Classes

Coach Dave M. Carson took over the physical education program at Millsaps this year. He finished his college career at Union University and later took post graduate work at the Y.M.C.A. in Chicago, having been physical education instructor at Enchs junior high school here in Jackson for the past year.

He has proved himself highly capable by expanding Millsaps physical education and the intramural program so that all students have an opportunity to participate.

The horizontal bars have afforded an opportunity for some to develop in acrobatics, while others play basketball, speedball, softball, tennis, box, or wrestle. For real toughening an obstacle course was built so that the boys could get in first class shape. Many boys in the service from Millsaps are thankful that they took physical training.

F O R A L L . .

Since Miss Frances Decell has been here at Millsaps, she has seen her dream of a campus playroom come true. Every night from 7:00 until 8:00 o'clock, the students gather in the basement of Founders' Hall for a recreation period of fun, reading, and games. She has also been working on a once-a-week "play night" in the Gym and has taken off to a good start.

Miss Decell spends much of her time sponsoring the Majorette Club. This is an athletic club for girls that are outstanding in school activities. The remainder of her valuable time is spent in "running things" in the women's gym classes, riding horseback on Friday afternoons, and keeping her Boston bulldog, Commodore, happy by buying him hamburger meat.

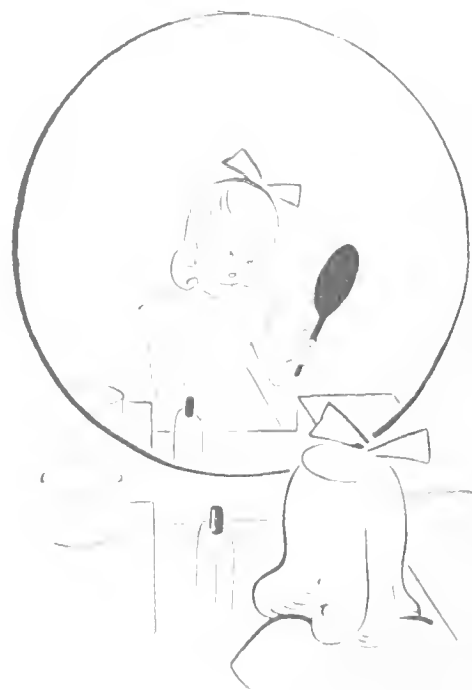

In her three years at Millsaps, Miss Decell has done much for intramural sports. She has led the organization of Women's Intramurals and has added several new courses to the physical education department.

She has organized and made plans for recreation leadership. She has begun classes in Health and Hygiene. She has classes in Elementary Physical Education, and some advanced courses in physical training.

BEAUTIES

Cadet Howle, Cadet Langley, Cadet McEnteer

They . . . SELECTED THE BEAUTIES

When the initial plans for the 1943 BOBASHELA were made, it was decided that in order to give the book one more different and distinctive feature, the beauties would be chosen in person, by a group of impartial judges. In this way, more could enter into the selection than would be possible from photographs, which it has been the custom to use.

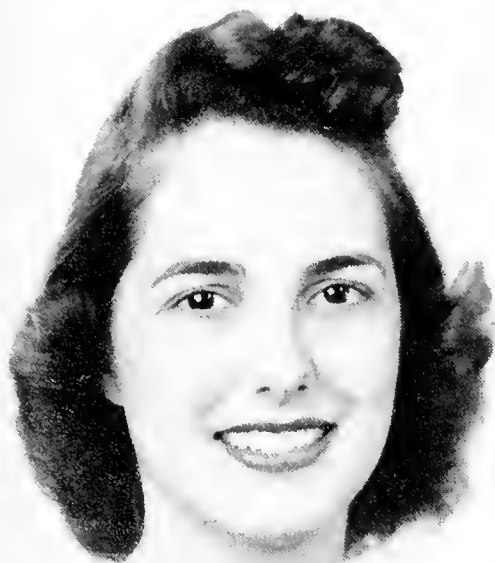

So, a sure-enough, old-fashioned beauty contest took place. The girls paraded in, the judges drank their fill of feminine beauty, and the headches began. "Pick out five more beautiful than the rest? Impossible!" . . . But that is really what happened.

Our judges were three cadets from the Mississippi Institute of Aeronautics at Madison, Mississippi—Cadet Harry H. Howle, from Andrews, S. C., Cadet John Alfred Langley, Jr., from Marion, S. C., and Cadet Frank Duff McEnteer, from DuBais, Pennsylvania. They chose these five girls, in order, as Misses' Five Most Beautiful: Dell Wolling, Frances Alexander, Lavinia Johnson, Helen Alexander, and Evelyn Dale Burnhom.

Empyreans

. . . ANYONE WHO WISHES CAN BECOME A MEMBER

This group, all for one and one for all, is a local campus organization that is resting on its own laurels. Its membership boasts such characters as Dolores Craft, Ricketts Childress, and Ellenita Sells. The Empyreans have done much toward the betterment of the campus social life, and a jallier set of folks is seldom to be found.

ALPHA ZETA CHAPTER

Berryhill hit this campus like a thunderbolt, and the BSO's boast her as one of their many attractions—but she ended up with a pin like all the rest! With Prissy Marsan and the First Lady (of Mississippi) as an advance guard, Beasley, Clarine Rush, and Sue McCormack really make the wheels go 'round. The BSO's boast another one of the sister combinations, what with Sue and Gerry. Alpha Zeta Chapter has really dane BIG things this year.

CHI DELTA CHAPTER

One would have to go far to find such a collection of beauty and brains in one chapter! Who can hold a candle to the Alexanders, Theo Stavall, Dale Burnham, and all the others? Then how about Beth Barran's voice, Clara Porter's brains, Betty Ja's drawl, Richardson's swing (on and off the piano), and Helen Hayes' all 'round personality? Chi Delta Chapter has the distinction of many other outstanding features, but, even without recommendations like these, the Chi O's stand at the top in every line.

KAPPA DELTA

MU CHAPTER

Kappa Delta still boasts Lampe, Miller (pinned or not), Harris, and Mather Grubbs. Their parties have been campus treats—never go to one without expecting to have a good time. Strange to say, the pledges try to keep up with the activities in being popular, pulling pins, making good grades, and being awfully versatile. Stanley is a vital part of the KD spirit. Speaking of spirit, what d'you think of Mrs. Robert Webb Williams, nee Elizabeth Buchanan, and her resolve to continue school?

EPSILON CHAPTER

"Big Mama" Trimble, Sylvia Roberts, Ginsie McKeown, and "Dr." Dinkins have long personified Epsilon Chapter of Phi Mu. Then there is the matter of grades—and here the Brien sisters do their part; when Janice falls down (has she ever?) these little sisters rush forward with the good grades. Someone always manages to keep up the chapter scholastic pace. Wroten has endeared herself in the capacity of a carbuncle to the whole campus. These gals have what it takes.

Any group that has a baron-to-be deserves some recognition, even if it is Van der Kroef. Then there's Professor Wubbles, who keeps a watchful eye over their antics. PI KAPPA ALPHA

ALPHA IOTA CHAPTER

This group rates "excellent" in sports and scholarship. The boys of 424 Morsholl Street get a well-proportioned slice of life. Such groups as The Literati rise up over night. The Pikes usually lead in pledging and initiating men. . . . a diversified group is the result. Their Founders' Day is traditional, and some of the impromptu parties are nothing short of being sensational! "Pap" King and Dr. Fincher stand by at all times.

Christian Council

. . THE FEW WITH REALLY SANE AND SERIOUS THOUGHTS

The Christian Council is the religious organization which sponsors all religious activities on the campus. It is composed of two members each from the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A., two members from the Ministerial League, one from the Baptist Student Union, five members from the student body at large, and one representative from each of the Methodist Youth Fellowships in Jackson.

This year the Christian Council brought Dr. Ray L. Smith to Millsaps as the main speaker during Religious Emphasis Week. Besides sponsoring Religious Emphasis Week, the council also sponsors services for Millsaps students and faculty during the Lenten season.

. "UNITED WE STAND, DIVIDED WE FALL"

The Boptist students of Millsaps have bonded together to form on "Association for the Mutuol Protection of Outcasts from the Methodist Horde." They call it the Boptist Student Union. Its Mondoy afternoon meetings are held in the Christion Center, and Carroll Lowe declares they have business to discuss, along with their worship services. The chief contribution of the group to the schoal is its welcoming committee which helps orient the Boptist students of the beginning of the year. They're really a nice bunch, even though they won't show much animosity toward the Choctows.

Singers . . .

No Glee Club trips to hear the singers talk about this year! Since the war put such a hitch in transportation, the musically inclined are forced to rehash the trips of the "good ole days," or not talk at all.

Their enforced "live at home and like it" state didn't quell the "do-mi-sol-do" gang, though. They started off the year by joining with the other Jackson schools for a Christmas presentation of the City Auditorium of Handel's MESSIAH on its 200th birthday.

Later, the Millsaps choir returned to the Auditorium in a Sunday afternoon concert, which was dedicated to the former members of the Millsaps Singers who are now in the armed service. Other local appearances included the presentation of selected numbers for the Mississippi Educational Association Convention in the Heidelberg Victory Room, the Men's Bible Class at Galloway Church, and at Pratt Colored Methodist Church.

Due to the armed forces' constant drain on Millsaps' man-power, the Singers' future began to look a bit gloomy. Kathleen saved the day, though, by "pitching in" with the tenors, and some of Pcp's high school boys helped fill in with the other voices, so the all-girl cantata is being saved for another year. Hungry wanted to be a baritone, but gave up the idea when Pop said it didn't seem lady-like.

Professor Alvin J. King

Even though many of the boys have gone, the Singers still remember them and think of them at the close of each program and rehearsal as they sing the Benediction.

. KNOWN FROM THE GULF TO THE GREAT LAKES FOR THEIR QUALITY OF TONE AND QUALITY OF CHARACTER

THE Beethoven

The outstanding event of the year for the Beethoven Club was the presentation of a talk and a group of songs by Miss Esther Amelie Oldt, contralto and teacher of speech at Antioch College. Also, the club was honored by having two members selected to serve at a reception for Rudolph Ganz, noted pianist under whom Mrs. Roberts studied. Mr. Ganz gave a program at Belhaven College and held a master class for the Millsaps music students.

At Christmas the music faculty entertained the club with a tea-musical. Journalistically speaking, a "finger" at all those members who were absent—both the music and the refreshments were grand.

The club, under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Roberts, has enjoyed a series of fine programs at its semi-monthly meetings in Elsinore Hall. These programs have included two piano numbers by Mrs. Roberts and Catherine Richardson, Jean Callaway and Jean Whyte, and Jean Callaway and Martin White; a program by Mrs. Coulet; ones combining the talents of both piano and voice pupils; and record programs.

THE Purple

In spite of frequent departures for the armed services among the veteran members of the staff, the P&W came up to its usual high standard this year under the able leadership of Harold Turnage. Highlights of the year were the edition dedicated to Millsaps men in the services, the co-ed edition, Freshman edition, and the April Fool edition.

The BOBASHELA this year has struggled along under a jinx. First, Mirl Whitaker, after planning and photographing much of this book, left for camp, turning the reins over to capable Elizabeth Buchanan, who subsequently elcped with a high school sweetheart and left the work to Clara Porter, who—at the time of the writing —seems to have escaped the hoodoo and is about to bring the publication to a successful conclusion. Luckily, the editorial staff this year is somewhat larger than formerly, and all three successive editors have been individuals who know their stuff, as some glances through the book should tell you. Mirl's foresight in thoroughly laying out the ground-work before his departure is especially to be recommended.

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

Bobashela

The same jinx pestering the Editorial Staff reached out early this year and snatched James Armstrong, whose place was ably filled by Maury Ross, who in turn vanished from the scene, leaving matters in the hands of Zach Taylor. At this writing, Zach has not yet succumbed to the jinx and is doing a pretty good job on what remains to be done. It is noteworthy that this would have been Armstrong's second year as business manager. It is also noteworthy that Pi Kappa Alpha has broken the record by furnishing two business managers for one issue of the Bobashela.

Despite these jinx, the business managers, assisted by a very capable staff, have succeeded in getting those all-important ads, as some quick glances will assure you. These commercial details must be handled by someone, and they've done a good job—besides getting your 50c subscription.

The Majorettes will always be remembered, first of all, for their Stunt Night. Their sponsorship of this annual affair has provided the campus with some grand entertainment.

Another of their projects, the Club Room, evolved into the Founders' Hall Recreation Room.

Never too busy to undertake something else, they managed the girls' intramurals: ping pang, softball, basketball, and volleyball. And they even found time to throw a STEAK FRY (before rationing) and a Christmas party at the Heidelberg.

The Ramblers' Club aims to stimulate interest among the Millsaps students in geology. This year the organization made several field trips in Jackson and its vicinity, to Vicksburg, and to Flora, where different formations were observed and new specimens of shells collected. The Club makes a large collection of valuable material from year to year which greatly aids the geology students in their work.

HERE ORIGINATE ATTACKS ON STUDENT RELIGIOUS PROBLEMS

The Y.M.C.A.'s number in their roster quite a few B.M.O.C.'s. Chief among these is, of course, Reid Bingham, elected president by direct vote in open session. Twice a month the Y. meets to lay plans for religious activities and events. It has not all been roses and honey, however—for there have been rumors of some vague kind of rivalry with the Y.W.—heaven knows what about.

Though its roster is being depleted by the ubiquitous demands of Uncle Sam, the Y. is still bowling along at a merry pace and setting a mark for the future Y.'s to shoot at. An important member was lost the second semester when J. W. Chatham went into the armed forces. Other valuable members have vanished from time to time, creating an ever-present problem in attendance. Among these are James Armstrong, Fred Tatum, and Buddy Waffard—good men all, who will be missed.

The Student Executive Board is the formal governing body for the students, consisting of the student body officers and the heads of various representative groups on the campus. It makes the laws and sees that the constitution is upheld. Brother Moore is still taking parts in Jackson Little Theatre productions, thus keeping the campus Cables and Lamarrs in touch with the local drama fields.

CHI DELTA

. . . HOW THE MEMBERS HATE TO BE ON THE PROGRAM!

The campus "bluestockings", known as Chi Deltas to the hoipoloi, whirled merrily through their monthly meetings and still found time for a joint gathering with Kit Kat (masculine equivalent) at the Heidelberg.

The girls have really been heckling each other this year, so now they're all scared to read their scrawls to the rest of the crew. Relax, girls, what difference will a split infinitive or a misplaced relative (where IS Uncle Henry?) make ten years from now? And besides, what's afraid of J. T.?

Original Prexy "Mac" McKeown graduated in January, leaving the gang in a mournful mood we hear she's having a GOO-d time, though. V.P. Clara Porter took charge and made them all happy, so Dr. Smith can smile again.

OLDEST AND MOST VENERABLE HONORARY ON THE CAMPUS

Kit Kat, the exclusive, was this year amazed to find itself once more with more student than faculty members. It even went so far as to break a tradition and have a student instead of a faculty member act as host at one of its meetings. (Kit Kat never meets except when it has been promised food.) Harold Turnage was the precedent-breaker, entertaining the group at the Edwards. For the big meeting of the year in conjunction with Chi Delta, the boys promised great entertainment, and from what the "chosen few" said about it, it must have been good!

In Appreciation...

The editor feels that the "it has been hard work, but if you enjoy the book I'm repaid" formula will not suffice for this page this year. I don't deny these facts but such ideas are too mechanistic. You perhaps remember when the BOBASHELA seemed hopelessly spread over the states of Arkansas and California—with little hope of survival.

Much credit belongs to Clara Porter, and even Dr. Moore made history by advancing one good idea. I feel grateful to hosts of others who worked on and on; they supplied many of the ideas incorporated in this book. Do not let any of these persons, with their false modesty, brush off the compliments they deserve.

The BOBASHELA is ever thankful to Mr. Bob Faerber for his vivid imagination and constant help in our relations with the Alabama Engraving Company. This year Mr. George Preiss proved new friends are very valuable also, and we thank him and the Paragon Press for their cooperation.

Becky and Sonny were always fun to be with, and we welcome them as Millsaps students of tomorrow. Thanks to their vitality the editor was hard pressed to keep up with them; but we have their pictures as the result.

In trying to find the theme and motive for this book I've made an attempt to find the pulse of the campus. At times it roared forth as loudly as the "juke" box in the Grill, and then at other times as feebly as an answer to Mrs. Goodman's Sophomore lit. exam. But I hope I haven't counted the beat wrongly. I feel that this thought of a new world was in your thinking. The idea, the spirit of Millsaps, of liberalism is necessary for our new world.

MIRL WESLEY WHITAKER

Millsaps . . . Accepts the Challenge of TODAY and TOMORROW

Never before have the students of Millsaps been offered such a vast opportunity to prove their strength, their courage, and their ingenuity in facing the challenge of today and of tomorrow. Theirs will be the bounding privilege of rebuilding a world of true peace . . . a world that the vision and enthusiasm of youth can anticipate . . . that the character and training of disciplined minds can bring into being.

With liberalism and truth as her cornerstone, Millsaps throughout the years has molded the character and developed the minds of students who would "look for the horizon that others have not yet seen". Today on the horizon behind the war-clouds a new world challenges her students. Strengthened by its past, and looking to the future, Millsaps is helping students meet that challenge.

Recapitulation

This bit of recapitulation
Shaws Millsaps during the duration
And possibly the only explanation
If zinc and paper went on ration.

The school daze began again in September and everything got off to a good start for Millsaps second half of the century. The war had begun to thin out some students but many had gone to school all through the summer. Everybody seemed relieved that the compulsory chapel had a shorter period.

Freshman Day soon rolled around and Freshman Queen Berryhill lasted through October when she ruled the Navy exhibit at the Fair.

As Dara Hwa had gone off to graduate school, van der Krcef came in the nick of time from Java to keep the Far East represented on our campus.

Then came Fall Tap Day and everybody was thinking about how they ever lasted through longer chapel periods.

Night Life on the campus included the annual stunt night and Dr. White's new crop of players in some one-act plays. Later on they presented Milne's "Mr. Pim Passes By."

Coach Carsan by this time was showing the eds and co-eds a real practical sports program for Millsaps and some of the physical ed students were getting in command trim.

The PURPLE AND WHITE announced in November that over 400 Millsaps men were in the Nation's armed forces. Over 74 of the men are officers, and many more are graduating from Officers' Candidate School.

The Millsaps War Band Drive was such a big success that it netted $70,000, and got the congratulations of the governor.

—No highlines—No substations
—residential electric rates from fifteen to twenty-five cents a kilowatt hour. Service, at best, extremely poor. No power for industry. Many towns with only part time service and hundreds had no service at all.
In that year Mississippi Power & Light Com-

—a different Mississippi! Industrial development has followed the availability of low cost and dependable electric power. MP&L's interconnected power system networks Western Mississippi, bringing service to 314 cities and communities; 10,000 rural customers; as well as meeting the increased demands of war industries and projects such as army camps and air bases. MP&L's ability to meet today's increased demands for power is the result of careful planning and efficient operation under business management for the past two decades.

Dr. Bullock left the sheltered walls of the campus to put one foot in heaven, and the first of December Dr. Moore went to New York "for culture."

Dr. Roy L. Smith, editor of the CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE, was the religious Emphasis Week speaker in December. All the plans were made by a committee of—(well, you try to decide how many).

The OKD members continued the perennial and historical discussion of a campus infirmity obetted by the annual editorial from the P&W.

The Sigma Lombdos had their annual Varsity Show which included such purely fictitious characters as Prof. Meanders, Capt. Hoppy Jones, Tom Scott, Betty Jo Holcomb, and a pursar.

The Singers presented Handel's "Messiah" as their pre-holiday gift to the student body. Soon thereafter students hied themselves home for the holidays.

Thirteen lucky people graduated in January, and 24 new students enrolled the second semester as the reservists pondered their fate.

Chorline Horris, Cced editor, presented a corking good edition of the P&W in February and the some month Prof. Harrell observed the new comet "Whipple" at our local observatory.

East met West in chapel when Dr. Bortok told of his experiences in Czechoslovakia with the Nazis, and a Chinese represented the World Student Service Fund.

Dr. Hutchins hit the compus to justify the ways of Chicago to mon. After the mystery of the doctor's lost brief case had been solved, students began thinking about the liberal orts, and Alma Zenfell even read the St. John's College catalog and the list of the hundred classics.

June came in February as far as wedding bells were concerned. Boyd Kellum and Jane Kern got married and the same day Ensign Navarro came back to marry Miss Ann.

The _____ (fill it in yourself) chapels of all come to Murrah Hall.

Millsaps eds and co-eds joined with the Belhaven people to help with rationing.

Tom Scott, after enduring the Finger's maledictions for too long, decided to try the air corps for peace.

March came in on the lam and the E. R. C. went out with it, if you get what we mean.

Word continued to trickle in that Millsaps students were still doing good work at graduate schools.

Theta Nu Sigma, the new science honorary, was the latest to join our great number of campus honoraries.

The WAAC's and the WAVE's came on the campus to try to lure the Dianas and Minervas away.

The Lambda Chi's issued a student handbook in March and the campus mop proved that Dot Raynham is still on the beam.

Notes of interest include: The visit of the Tougaloo singers, the Chi Deltas' meeting with Kit Kot, and Janice Trimble's returning from the Phi Mu party an hour late.

Clara Porter was rushing around like mad, trying to keep BOBASHELA pictures together and live through a Chi Omega initiation.

There were signs of spring in the air besides Spring holidays: this included the inane love story of Herbert Craig and Ruth Gibbons.

Fred Totum left for medical school and students were wondering if he would return with classic puns about codovers.

The women were pleased to learn that the Navy had decided to come to Millsaps; eds sulked and hoped that it would be a chaplains' school.

Everybody knew that the Civil War had come to the American History class as Kinch Exum made his annual visit to see that there was no sabotage to Jefferson Davis; time turned backward in its flight and Axtell and Exum fought from Gettysburg to Vicksburg.

Founders' Day came in April! High School day came and eds and co-eds become hosts and hostesses; Dr. Fincher had become district president of the Pikes.

The P&W had its editorial "Delanda Est Carthago" published in MOTIVE magazine.

Freshmen, acquiring sophomore knowledge, were amazed to know that Dr. Mitchell was called "Broncho" in the good ole days.

Next year's catalogue appeared and the seniors received their invitations and planned to leave the hard work of college for the pleasures and happinesses of the world.
